2021 GPHG winners on show in Paris

Geneva, December 6, 2021 - The new Chronext Lounge on Rue Marbeuf in Paris hosted the 18 prize-winning watches of the 2021 Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève (GPHG) edition, from December 2 to 5. The specialised press was present at the opening, where collectors and enthusiasts had a chance to discover these exceptional timepieces in the course of multiple private presentations accompanied by experts.

"It is an honor for us to present the award winners of the Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève in its 20th anniversary year. It was a pleasure to welcome all the watch enthusiasts to our joint cocktail in Paris. We thank the Foundation of the GPHG for the trust to support them as ambassadors for the watchmaking art."

Philipp Man, CEO & Co-Founder CHRONEXT

The 2021 travelling exhibition, which also made stop-offs in St. Petersburg, Geneva and Dubai, concluded with this Paris presentation at Chronext.

See you in 2022 for a new celebration of watchmaking excellence and creativity. The date of the 2022 awards ceremony will be announced soon.

About the GPHG: Created in 2001 and overseen since 2011 by a foundation recognised as a public interest organisation, the Grand Prix d'Horlogerie de Genève (GPHG) has been pursuing for 20 years its mission to celebrate and promote the watchmaking art worldwide. It achieves this with the support of its public and private partners, notably its principal partner, FGP Global Properties Swiss & Alps.
